Article VI

If the directors are not to be elected or appointed by one or more classes of members, a statement of the manner in which such directors shall be elected or appointed.

At the regular meeting of directors held in the first quarter of the calendar year, directors shall be elected by the board of directors. Each director shall cast one vote per candidate, and may vote for as many candidates as the number of candidates to be elected to the board. The candidates receiving a majority of votes shall be elected to serve on the board. The corporation shall have no fewer than five (5) and no more than fifteen (15) directors (excluding ex-officio directors as specified in the bylaws) and collectively they shall be known as the board of directors. Directors shall be of the age of majority in this state. Other qualifications for directors of this corporation may be enumerated in the corporation's policies and procedures.

For purposes of continuity, the term of office for the directors shall be staggered. Each person elected as a director of the Board shall hold office for a term of three (3) years, commencing on the first meeting following that person's election to the Board. No person who is elected as a director of the Board shall continue to serve as a director of the Board after having served three (3) consecutive three-year terms.

Article VII

Any provisions which the incorporators elect to set forth for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provision for the distribution of assets on dissolution or final liquidation.

This corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation, shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or to a 501(c)(3) organization as chosen by the board.
